How to Boost Your Business in Brunei Using Graphic Design

? Graphic Design involves planning & creating visual content through typography, imagery, colour & form for communication.

Importance / Benefits

Graphics play an important role in communicating with your customers or to advertise your product and services.

1 — It can convey better than words

- Create a long-lasting impression that works beyond language
- Example: the logo of Apple is enough to know its company name

2 — Enhance visibility and attract attention

- Producing promotional & marketing digital posters
- Relaying information in a visually appealing way

3 — Build your basic brand

- To appear a certain, specific way; whether it is fun & exciting, or corporate & professional
- To create a unique brand, your company needs a distinctive brand features such as brand logo & colours
- Example: Apple, McDonalds, Volkswagen
